

ALFALFA MAKES PEOPLE FLESHY

Anybody Can Try It, at No Expense—Just Buy a Box, Use It, and if Not Thoroughly Satisfied You Get Your Money Back

Don't Say When You Take Alfalfa You Know There's Something That's Making You Feel Strong, Vigorous, and Soon You'll Weigh More and Look Better.

Just try a box of Alfalfa, and you'll find out why the progressive farmer feeds alfalfa to his stock—because it makes them healthy and fat. It's so much better than corn and oats. You can't even eat alfalfa, but you can't get it—Alfalfa, the concentrated extract of alfalfa, contains the essential elements that aid the system to assimilate and retain the flesh-making elements in food. Nervous Periodical Headaches

This trouble commonly called "nervous headache," is said to be due to the retention of acid in the system. It is caused by a poor condition of the blood, a source of these headaches, or that it is a nervous condition, and in certain cases, no doubt this is true. Where treatment is demanded, it is very for the pain than anything else, and Dr. A. F. Schellchmidt of Louisville, has found that a certain tablet gives relief. These tablets should be inserted upon, he says, and the patient should go to bed, darken the room, and all the attendants and family should be as quiet as possible. A cassette will sometimes shorten the attack. The bowels should be kept open with "Alopecia," a hot bath and a short nap—followed with a course of relief, give grateful relief. Two anti-acid tablets when the first signs appear, will usually prevent the return of the attack, one tablet every hour for two days. These tablets are available at all druggists. Ask for A. F. Tablets. They are also successful for nervous headache, neuritis and all pains. Advt.

EXPERT ADVICE FREE TO HOME DRESSMAKERS

If you are in doubt about what styles or colors become you; if the making or remodeling of a gown perplexes you; if you are uncertain as to when and where to wear your clothes, Miss Lodewick will advise you. Address communications to Fashion Editor, New York Evening World.

Style in the Child's Frocks is as Important as Pretentious, for She Must Be Trained to Carry Style—Simplicity Should Be the Test and All Extremes Avoided.

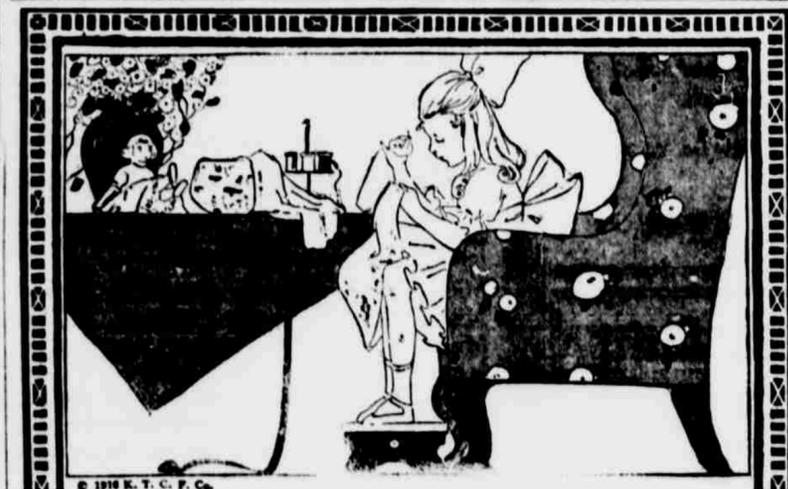

By Mildred Lodewick.

Most mothers in making clothes for their young daughters think only of having them "pretty," overlooking the important consideration of "style." A merely pretty frock is not sufficient for the girl of to-day, no matter what age she may be. If a child is to have attributed to her, when she grows older, that coveted and attractive quality "stylish," she has to have the same training as she does in manners, to be called "well-bred."

Of course some little girls inherit a natural stylish air, and they can "carry" almost any sort of frock, but these are few and far between. Most little girls need smart clothes to make them look stylish and to aid them in developing good taste in such matters. It is not easy to incorporate definite details of the mode in youthful frocks, but if always simplicity is kept in mind, extremes, which are discordant with youth, will not be indulged. The two pretty designs I am showing are excellent models for dainty summer materials. At the left a sprigged voile or lawn or dainty is depicted with plain white batiste or dimity combined as trimming pieces on the waist and as sleeves. A yoke of the plain white is edged with an upstanding frill which may be either of the same fabric or of net, while through two slits at the front of the yoke a colored ribbon is drawn to drop its ends nearly to the belt. A dainty touch to the plain white long sleeve is the little ruffle which marks its attachment to the drop armhole. The skirt claims no need of the white fabric, but offers a ruffle of its own at the hip line, which would extend all the way around were it not halted by the batiste and a black silk tie or colored ribbon pulled through the slits. At the right a dainty afternoon frock suitable for Sunday or party wear, is suggested. The modish placing of narrow plaited net ruffles around the hips gives a delightfully youthful effect on either sheer or GIVE little Margery a needle and thread and she's a happy child. Give her Kellogg's Toasted Corn Flakes—and she's happy again. Flavor counts with the unspoiled critical taste of children—that's the reason they love Kellogg's. Packed Waxtite—Look for this signature.

Kellogg's Toasted Corn Flakes advertisement featuring a box of flakes and the signature of H.K. Kellogg. Text includes: 'Imitations come and go! They change their name. They change their form. Some do both. Kellogg's—the Original Toasted Corn Flakes remain as original as ever—light, and dainty, appetizing in flavor with a melting crispness on the tongue.'

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

Dear Fashion Editor: I have a question concerning the making of a dress. I have a pattern for a dress and I want to know how to make the waist fitting. I have a pattern for a dress and I want to know how to make the waist fitting. I have a pattern for a dress and I want to know how to make the waist fitting.

I would be very much obliged if you would suggest some way in which to fix over my evening dress (diagram enclosed) which I made some fifteen years ago. Please state what colors would look good on the. Am five feet three inches tall, dark hair, with lots of color, dark eyes. Is it As your skirt is not full enough divide it and use as panels front and back, gathered and pinned to the hips with pink net or chiffon ruffles bound with pink taffeta. Rearrange your waist so the necklines come as I have shown. Net or chiffon forms upper part of bodice. Yellow and all shades of blue should become you.

Dear Fashion Editor: I am twenty-one years old and would like you to describe for me a good Sunday dress that will give me height and which will be rich looking. What color? Am five feet two inches, weigh 113 pounds, dark brown hair, brown eyes, not very dark complexion. A HEADER. Silk striped crepe with white Georgette crepe collar which lies in back. Small lace collar and rose ribbon bows. Stripe voile could be used if desired instead of crepe.

"CONTINUE THE FIGHT," PARKER URGES MOOSERS "Unterrified by Desertion," He Advises Them to Adhere to Principles. NEW ORLEANS, July 5.—In a telegram to the Third District Congressional Committee of the Progressive Party in Louisiana, John M. Parker, the Progressive Vice-Presidential nominee, urged the Progressives yesterday to continue their fight and to stand by their convictions "unterrified by desertion and fearless of any opposition."

"We should demand immediate resignation of those indorsing parties," he wrote, "should strictly adhere to our principles and ask support and co-operation of all parties working for national good and human welfare. We are not seeking to get into the band wagon. Our principles are either right or wrong, and as long as we firmly believe we are right let us continue the fight for our honest convictions, unterrified by desertion and fearless of any opposition."

Asked if this indicated he would not support either the Republican or Democratic nominees for President, but would insist on the Progressives keeping a ticket in the field, Mr. Parker said he "presumably holds that it would be a definite statement on the subject in a few days."

Truce Identifies Girl Found Dead. The young woman found dead from gas poisoning Monday in the apartment of William Lester, at No. 759 Eastern Parkway, Brooklyn, was identified yesterday as Miss Louise Mason, nineteen years old, of Johnstown, N. Y. The identification was made by William J. Adams of Johnstown, who said he was the girl's uncle. He told the police that the girl had left home seven months ago. Coroner Wagner thinks the case one of suicide.

The THURSDAY THRIFT SALE: Its Low Prices MEAN Something!

QUALITY—the solid, dependable sort, is closely linked with every offering that The Store Accommodating ever makes. Don't forget that. PRICES—our regular prices—are not only low, for such quality, but often actually lower than other stores ask for inferior goods. The price of an article, and its value, are two different things. A tag tells you the former, but only time and service can determine the latter. And it is on Abraham and Straus quality, which certifies value, that the lowered prices of the Thursday Thrift Sales apply. Do you wonder at their success?
